FERRANDI PARIS

Founded in 1920 by the Paris Chamber of Commerce and Industry, FERRANDI, l'école française de gastronomie, has trained generations of chefs, pastry chefs, bread-bakers and restaurant servers and managers. FERRANDI programs include vocational training for young people, a Bachelor program, professional training for career switchers, specialized courses for experienced professionals and specific programs for international candidates. 2600 students and over 2500 professionals study the culinary arts at FERRANDI each year.

FERRANDI is widely recognized for the quality of its training programs, which focus on hands-on learning and professional skills. Our qualified and dedicated faculty is passionate about passing on the values and the knowledge of the professions they teach, and they provide students and trainees with the highest level of professional training available. All of our programs include exposure to the professions through internships and apprenticeships. This combination of practical training and in-company experience makes our graduates attractive hires for the most prestigious restaurants, hotels, pastry shops and other culinary-related businesses around the world.

Located in the heart of Paris, in Saint-Germain-des-Près, Jouy-en-Josas and Bordeaux in south of France, with 25,000m² of floorspace, 35 teaching labs, 5 training restaurants, an 80-seat demonstration kitchen and state of the art professional equipment, FERRANDI is also a meeting-place for the culinary world and hosts many of the most prestigious culinary contests and events.
